

✶ A writer in the Knickerbocker Magazine undertakes to disparage Dr. O. W. Holmes as a poet. He set himself to an ungracious task and has performed it ungraciously. Dr. H. is one of the most charming and delightful of all living poets. Our country's literature is under great obligations to him. He fills a place that no one else could fill. Without him the circle of American poetry would be incomplete.

He was requested to announce W. R. Hays as a candidate for Congress in the 12th Congressional District.

Hays is a sterling patriot, a sound thinker and an eloquent speaker. He is a man of the finest promise both as an orator and as a statesman.

The Richmond journals are already full of Hays. Hooker. They do well to begin with. Hays is a man of the finest promise both as an orator and as a statesman.

the preservation of the prizes which it commands that are lifted great battle in which fought, the accomplished battalion, its Lieutenant at the post of duty memory will be held
as long as heroic
patriotism have a
regiment still con-grat Army of the

March 5. —
Medarty of 75
in sweep
stly done.
was also ated from h drawn

appeal to the Supreme Court in cases where a larger sum than three thousand dollars is involved, authorizes the appointment of two additional judges, and empowers the President to appoint a presiding justice. It is hoped that this new tribunal will be the means of serving more promptly than heretofore the rights of claimants, and guard the public interests more effectively than has been the case under the system of Congressional legislation.

made a minority report from the Federal Relations, introducing a resolution for a Peace Convention in the future.

The committee have resolved to remain here until the close of the session. It is a matter of course, whether, if the minority do not, the Governor will call an extra session.

The commanding at this post of Indiana, has issued a mandate to all secret political societies. He declares all the same, crisis, members of the same.

and continued it until secondary shell struck the on fire. She is now slow-fired upon the iron-clad Other gunboats of the did no damage.

The Northern Light
with 1,253,000
destroyed by gunboat President Cameron, of del Salvador, a battle
The Kansas Minister is

New York, March 6. — Arrived from Aspinwall safe. She was connedificat.

